THE CONTENTS AND STRUCTURE OF THE PALI CANON AND ITS COMMENTARIES

THE PALI CANON

There are two sets of abbreviations of the names of Pali texts: the, now standard, Critical Pali Dictionary system, and the obsolescent Pali Text Society Dictionary system. These are given in brackets, below, with the CPD abbreviation first when the two differ.

VINAYA PI.TAKA (Vin): 'Basket of (monastic) Discipline'; PTS edition in 5 volumes (PTS translation: Book of the Discipline):

1. monastic code (paa.timokkha) for monks and for nuns, contained in the Suttavibha"nga, together with a commentary on that;
2. the Khandhaka, dealing with the regulation of communal life, which is contained in the Mahaavagga and Cuulavagga. The Mahaavagga also contains some material on the life of the Buddha, etc.;
3. the Parivaara, which is an abstract of the whole of the Vinaya Pi.taka, in dialogue form.

References are to volume and page number, eg. Vin III 59. Note that:

- Vin I and II (Mahaavagga and Cuulavagga) are translated as The Book of the Discipline vols IV and V.
- Vin III, IV (Suttavibha"nga) are translated as The Book of the Discipline vols I, II and III.

Also note that the translation, when it gives the Pali page number in the midst of the translation, gives it at the end of that page: eg [1] means p.1 ends here. In all other translations, it indicates where a page of the original starts.

SUTTA PI.TAKA, 'Basket of Discourses':

1. Diigha Nikaaya (DN or D): 'Long Collection' of 34 Suttas; PTS edition in 3 volumes; PTS translation: Dialogues of the Buddha. References are usually given to the volume and page number of the PTS Pali text, e.g. DN III 33. To find this in translation, look at Dialogues of the Buddha vol. III, then find the section corresponding to p33 of the Pali by looking for [33] in the body of the text, which indicates where the translation of p33 starts. Some authors may simply refer to the Sutta number, eg. Diigha no.12; but as the Suttas are quite long in this collection, this is not a very exact reference.

2. Majjhima Nikaaya (MN or M): 'Middle Length Collection' of 150 Suttas; PTS edition in 3 volumes'; PTS translation: Middle Length Sayings. The PTS translation volumes correspond to the first, second and third set of 50 Suttas, though the PTS Pali version groups them into 1-76, 77-100 and 101-150. Consequently vol. I of the text is translated in vol. I (for pp1-338 of text) and part of vol. II (for pp339-524) in the translation. References are some times made to the Sutta number, but it is more usual to refer to vol. and page number of the PTS Pali text, e.g. MN I 350, which can be found in vol.II of the translation: vol. no. and page no. of the Pali is given at top of the page, and the Pali page number is also included in the text of the translation: [350].
3. Sa.myutta Nikaaya (SN or S): 'Connected Collection' of 7,762 Suttas, grouped in 56 sections (sa.myuttas) according to subject matter; PTS edition in 5 volumes; PTS translation: The Book of Kindred Sayings. References are usually to volume and page number of the Pali text (e.g. SN III 79). These are given in the translation at the top of the left hand page, but exact Pali page-breaks are not indicated within the text of the translation. References are also given to section and Sutta number- which as the Suttas in this collection are each fairly short, is a reasonably exact way of giving a reference (though Sutta numbers differ in different editions). For these types of reference, see top of right hand page of translation (though this does not give the vol. number). An example: S.II.XV.I. 2. For this, look at Kindred Sayings vol. II, then look at contents page for 'chapter' (sa.myutta) XV, section I, then go to this part of the translation till 2 is found.
4. A"nguttara Nikaaya (AN or A): 'Single-item Upwards Collection' of 9,550 Suttas, grouped according to the number of items dealt with in the Suttas, from one to eleven; PTS edition 5 volumes; PTS translation: The Book of Gradual Sayings. References are usually to volume and page number of the Pali text (e.g. AN IV 93). These are given in the translation at the top of the left hand page, but exact Pali page-breaks are not indicated within the text of the translation. (except in volume V). References are also given to the sutta number, eg. A.VI.VI.63: this can be found in the sixes (thus in Gradual Sayings vol.III- look at contents to find chapter VI of the sixes, then locate VI.VI.63 by looking at the top of the right hand page, and then down to where 63 starts.
5. Khuddaka Nikaaya: 'Collection of Little Texts': 15 separate miscellaneous texts, many in verse form, which contain both some of the earliest and latest material in the Canon:
 1. Khuddakapaa.tha (Khp or Kh): 'Little readings': a short collection of texts for recitation; PTS edition in one volume,

- with its commentary; PTS translation: The Minor Readings. Reference usually by Sutta number and verse number.
2. Dhammapada (Dhp or Dh): 'Verses on Dhamma', a popular collection of 423 pithy verses of a largely ethical nature; PTS edition in one volume; PTS translation available 1997. Reference by verse number.
 3. Udaana (Ud): 'Verses of Uplift': 80 short Suttas based on inspired verses; PTS edition in one volume; PTS translation Verses of Uplift. Reference to page number of Pali text (e.g. Ud 54), or chapter and Sutta number.
 4. Itivuttaka (It): 'As It Was Said': 112 short Suttas; PTS edition in one volume; PTS translation: As it Was Said. Reference to page number of Pali text (e.g. It 12), or chapter and Sutta number.
 5. Suttanipaata (Sn): 'Group of Discourses': a collection of 71 verse Suttas, including what some see as very early material, such as the A.t.thakavagga; PTS edition in one volume; PTS translation: Group of Discourses II and (paperback) The Rhinoceros Horn. References to verse number, or chapter, Sutta and verse number.
 6. Vimaanavatthu (Vv): 'Stories of the Mansions', on heavenly rebirths; PTS edition in one volume, with the following; most recent PTS translation: Stories of the Mansions. Reference to chapter, Sutta and verse number.
 7. Petavatthu (Pv): 'Stories of the Departed': on ghostly rebirths; PTS edition in one volume, with last item; most recent PTS translation: Stories of the Departed. Reference to chapter, Sutta and verse number.
 8. Theragaatha (Th or Thag): 'Elders' Verses', telling how a number of early monks attained enlightenment; PTS edition in one volume; PTS translations: Elders' Verses and Psalms of the Brethren. Reference to verse number.
 9. Therigaatha (Thii or Thig): 'Elders' Verses': , telling how a number of early nuns attained enlightenment; PTS edition in one volume; PTS translations: Elders' Verses and Psalms of the Sisters, both in Poems of Early Buddhist Nuns. Reference to verse number.
 10. Jaataka: a collection of 547 'Birth Stories' dealing with previous lives of the Buddha, with the aim of illustrating points in morality. The full stories are told in the commentary (JA), based on the verses and small sections of prose (J), which are canonical: PTS edition of text and commentary in 6 volumes; PTS translation of text and commentary: Stories of the Buddha's Former Births, with Story of Gotama Buddha giving the Buddha's life, from Vol.I of the commentary. Reference to volume and page number of Pali text, or to story number.
 11. Niddesa: Mahaa-Niddesa (NiddI or Nd1) and Culla-Niddesa (NiddII or Nd2): 'Exposition', in the form of a (canonical) commentary on part of the Suttanipaata; PTS edition in 3

THE COMMENTARIES (A.T.THAKATHAA)

In the following, the canonical text title is followed by that of its commentary, and the title of the PTS translation of this commentary, where it exists. In the system adapted by the Pali Text Society Dictionary, the abbreviation for commentary for a text is the text abbreviation followed by A., e.g.: D.A. = commentary on Diigha Nikaaya. The commentary to the Dhammasa"nga.nii also has the abbreviation Asl. In the system of the Critical Pali Dictionary (to be adopted in the new edition of the Pali Text Society Dictionary), there are separate abbreviations for the names of many of the commentaries (given below); others add -a or -t, for a commentary (a.t.thakathaa) or sub-commentary (.tikaa) respectively.

ABOUT THE PALI TEXT SOCIETY

(Details taken from the List of Issues 1996-97)

The Society was founded in 1881 by T.W. Rhys Davids "to foster and promote the study of Pali Texts". It publishes Paali texts in roman characters, translations in English and ancillary works including dictionaries, concordances, books for students of Paali and a Journal which is issued on an ad hoc basis. As this List of Issues shows, most of the classical Texts and commentaries have now been edited and many works translated into English. The Society aims to keep almost all its publications in print and to produce two new volumes each year.

The Society is non-profit making. It depends on the sale of its publications, on members' subscriptions and on the generosity of donors. It also provides Research Studentships for a number of people working in the field of Paali studies.

Membership

There are two categories of members, sponsoring and ordinary. All members may attend and vote at the Annual General Meeting, and purchase any of the Society's publications direct from the Society at the current rate of discount. At present members' discount is being held at the special rate of 20%.

Sponsoring members also receive free (and post-free) one volume each year. They may choose which volume they wish to receive from the Society's current list, with the exception of the dictionaries and the Paali Tipi.taka Concordance. If the Hon. Secretary receives no message to the contrary, they will receive the volume nominated by the Council, normally the Society's latest publication. Sponsoring membership costs £16 for one year or £70 for five years.
